Two Southern California Candidates Stand for HAA Elected Director Posts

Sonia Molina DMD '89, MPH '89 and Patric M. Verrone AB '81 received the endorsement of the Harvard Club Board of Directors for the position of Harvard Alumni Association (HAA) Elected Director. All alumni are encouraged to vote in the HAA's spring elections.

Sonia Molina

Patric M. Verrone

Molina is a successful dentist and business-woman, serving as president of both Molina Endodontics and the real estate company Nassillon Development Inc. Additionally, she is a clinical lecturer at the UCLA Department of Endodontics. She was a founding member of the Salvadoran American Leadership and Educational Fund and is active on the board of the Los Angeles Dental Society, the Latin American Dental Association, and the Women's Dental Society. She also served as president of the Downey Dental Academy.

An active member of the HCSC, Molina frequently hosts alumni dinners in her home and serves as an admissions interviewer.

SoCal Candidates for HAA Elected Directors, continued from cover

Patric M. Verrone is an Emmy award-winning television writer and producer. As President of the Writers Guild of America, West, he led the union of 10,000 writers through a successful 100-day strike, securing Internet revenue and creative rights in new media. He was named among Time Magazine's "Most Influential People of 2008." A graduate of Boston College Law School, he has taught at Loyola Law School and UCLA Extension, and received the 2006 Association of Media & Entertainment Counsel Labor Counsel of the Year Award.

Verrone co-founded the Harvard Club of Southwest Florida and is an active member of both the HCSC and Harvardwood. "Between student interviews, career advisory and mentor programs, reunion functions, and frequent campus visits just to buy stuff at the Coop," says Verrone, "I already feel deeply entwined in the fabric of the Harvard alumni world. Serving as a director of the HAA would only encourage me further."

HAA Elected Directors represent alumni on the Association's Board of Directors. Ballots are mailed to all alumni in April.

Dumbstruck: Film Debut Followed by Q&A

Harvard alumni Mark Goffman MPP '94 will be debuting his film, Dumbstruck, a documentary following the lives of five ventriloquists, followed by a Q&A. The film was an official selection in the 2010 Atlanta Film Festival.

A prolific TV writer and producer, Goffman is currently Executive Producer of the hit TV series, White Collar. Dumbstruck is his feature directorial debut.

Ticket prices are $10.50. Please register through the Landmark Regent Theatre ticket office at (310) 281-8223.

The 2011 Harvard Club Annual Dinner

Join us as we install our officers and honor distinguished members of our community, Sumner M. Redstone AB '44, LLB '47 and Father William Muller, SJ. Entertainment will be provided by The Yardbirds, the all-Harvard alum, a capella singing group.

Sumner M. Redstone AB '44, LLB '47, Chairman of the Board of both CBS Corporation and Viacom, will be this year's recipient of the Club's John Harvard Award for Distinguished Community Service. The Sumner M. Redstone Foundation recently announced charitable grants of more than $105 million to fund research and patient care advancements at FasterCures/The Center for Accelerating Medical Solutions, the Cedars-Sinai Prostate Cancer Center, Massachusetts General Hospital, and the Cambodian Children's Fund. In 2010, Mr. Redstone contributed $1M for scholarships at both Harvard College and Harvard Law School.

Father William Muller, SJ, President of Verbum Dei High School, will be this year's recipient of the Club's Excellence in Education Award. Verbum Dei was founded in 1962 and has educated thousands of students from Watts and the surrounding neighborhoods. Under his leadership, VDHS was taken from near closure to a vibrant educational community in a safe and dynamic environment for the young men of Watts and surrounding areas that are looking for a quality education at an affordable price, and the opportunity to attend college.
