Harvard College ReConnect — January 21, 2012

The Harvard Club of Southern California is expecting several hundred alumni from the 13 Western states including Alaska and Hawaii, to attend the upcoming Harvard College ReConnect event on Saturday, January 21, which will be held at Sony Pictures Studios in Culver City.

The event will feature Michael D. Smith, Harvard's Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences, who will provide the event's welcome and will moderate a student panel. The event will feature symposia with three leading Harvard faculty members.

Philip Lovejoy, the Deputy Executive Director of the Harvard Alumni Association, said that this year's program is a celebration of Harvard's 375th anniversary, and is hosted by Michael Lynton AB '81, MBA '87 at Sony Pictures Studios. "Harvard College ReConnect is a collaboration between the Harvard Alumni Association and the Harvard College Fund to engage alumni in the West," said Lovejoy.

"This premier event is intended to highlight faculty from the College, learn about the current student experience, and explore how Harvard has impacted you," he said. "We look forward to your attendance and participation at this flagship event. Follow the Harvard Alumni Association and join the conversation using the #harvardreconnect on twitter."

Further information on the event is included on page 3. To register, please visit <http://alumni.harvard.edu/reconnect>

2012 Annual Dinner Honorees - Submit Your Nominations!

The Club is now accepting nominations for the “John Harvard Award” and the “Excellence in Education Award” to be presented at our Annual Dinner, traditionally held in May. Criteria established by the board are:

The John Harvard Award for Distinguished Community Service

- Active in public service
- Significant, innovative work to improve Southern California society
- Has high personal integrity
- Recognized by a large portion of the membership
- An outstanding leader in his/her field
- Harvard connection a plus
- Able to attend the dinner and give a short speech

Excellence in Education Award

- Direct involvement in the field of education
- Either in primary, secondary, or higher education in Southern California or in a role that affects the education of children or young adults
- Has high personal integrity
- Demonstrated excellence and substantial achievement in the field of education
- Able to attend the dinner and give a short speech

All recommendations will be submitted to the Board for evaluation and final selection early in 2012. Any suggestions for format, entertainment, and location for the dinner would also be appreciated. Anyone wishing to help on the Annual Dinner committee is welcomed. Please submit all recommendations and information to Madeleine Mejia at madeleine\_mejia@post.harvard.edu.

The Harvard Krokodiloes in Concert in Los Angeles

Date: Tuesday, January 10, 2012
Time: 8:00 P.M.
Location: Westwood Presbyterian Church
10822 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90024
Cost : $15 Members, $20 Non-members
(includes post-concert dessert reception)
Contact: Ken Williams, kenneth\_s\_williams@hotmail.com

The Harvard Krokodiloes, Harvard University's oldest and most accomplished a capella singing group, perform popular music from the 1920s through 1960s. Specializing in jazz, swing, ballads and rock from America's Golden Age, the talented and tuxedo clad Kroks have won the hearts of fans across the United States and around the world. During the 60+ years since the group's founding, they have sung for presidents, royalty, celebrities and charitable causes. The Kroks' annual summer world tour has for the past 25 years taken them to the major cities of East Asia, Australia, South Africa, the Middle East, Russia, Europe, South America, and the Caribbean.

Don't miss this rare Southern California appearance by the Kroks as they bring to Los Angeles their unique blend of a capella harmony and humor.

Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Gardens - "The House That Sam Built"

Date: Saturday, January 14, 2012
Time: 9:00 A.M.
Location: Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Gardens
1151 Oxford Road San Marino, CA 91108
Cost: $25.00 per person
Contact: Beverlee Bickmore, beverleeB@earthlink.net

Sam Maloof was one of the premier woodworkers of the mid-late-20th century and early 21st century, whose rocking chairs graced the White House of Presidents Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and Bill Clinton, and who was awarded a MacArthur Genius Grant in 1985. Our private tour of "The House That Sam Built" exhibit in the Boone Gallery will provide a view of 35 pieces of Sam Maloof furniture, on loan from private individuals and institutions, set among over 80 pieces of art produced by the Claremont centered, Pomona Valley community of artists and crafts persons from 1945 to 1985. Artists represented include painters Millard Sheets and Paul Darrow, ceramicists Betty Davenport Ford and Otto and Gertrud Natzler, sculptors Aldo Casanova and John Svenson, enamelists Arthur and Jean Goodwin Ames, woodturner Bob Stocksdale, and weaver Kay Sekimachi,

After our before-public-hours tour of the Maloof exhibit, we can explore the Chinese Garden, visit the Library with its Guttenberg Bible, see Pinkie and Blue Boy in the recently renovated Huntington mansion, visit the exhibit "Water Began It All" in the Botanical Center, and learn about the early development of water at the San Gabriel Mission.
