Club President's Message

by Albert Chang, MD

Dear Members of the Club and Friends:

I hope you enjoyed your summer. Your Club schedule of events should prove that you can also 'vacation' in the Southland!

This summer our Club sold out in our three signature events, the Pageant of the Masters Art show and dinner, the Hollywood Bowl (with Dudamel and Domingo), and the Levitt Pavilion Gourmet Dinner and Concert. We even had a 'bonus' sold out event, in the exploration of the stars at the Mt. Wilson Observatory visit. Our compliments go to the organizers: A.J. Rogers, Jennifer and Bruce Waltzer, Eva Plaza and Liz Ryan, and Mike Long. Kudos also are due to Steven Arkow for organizing the UCLA tennis tournament and Stacie Oliveras Castain for organizing the John Williams event at the Hollywood Bowl.

There is still a cornucopia of events in the weeks ahead. We hope you will join us in one or more of these events: a friendly yet competitive tennis match in Pacific Palisades, a book signing about the U.S. State Department, a piano recital of music by Chopin, and a beachside bicycle ride for families.

Please check out the details in the articles in this newsletter. Your Board officers and directors resumed their hard volunteer work on September 5. Be sure to communicate your ideas and views to us so that the Club can serve you better. Thank you again for your participation in the Club, and best wishes.

Harvard Club Sponsors Send-off Party for Current and New Students

On Sunday, August 12th, Spenser Goodman '14 hosted a send-off party for all current Harvard students at his house in San Juan Capistrano. This is the third year in a row that Spenser has helped organize this send-off party and this year was a great success. About 50 current undergraduates attended the party. There were many incoming freshmen, several sophomores, some juniors, and a couple of seniors in attendance. The incoming class of freshmen was able to meet each other and meet upperclassmen who answered their questions and gave them advice to help make their transition to life at Harvard this fall. Party goers enjoyed burgers and hot dogs courtesy of Davis Goodman '77, great conversation, and fun games in the pool. Judging from the photo of the party, it looks like these students had a great time!

Harvard in the Schools!

For many years the Harvard Club of Southern California has sponsored a tutoring project in a local inner-city school. Each year the need seems greater, and this year is no exception.

Come join colleagues concerned with the plight of education in our country. Learn the problems first hand and be a part of the solution.

Our project school is 32nd St USC Magnet School, a small, unusual k-12 performing arts and math-science magnet in a safe location across from USC, so whatever your field, interest, or experience may be you can find a way to fit in. And this is the time to do it! School has started! Soon students with difficulties will be identified, your help needed and a Harvard presence in the school appreciated.

For further information please contact Priscilla Heim at priheim@verizon.net or 310-472-4478

Harvard College Admissions Update

Following a banner year in which Harvard College admitted the highest number of local students ever, 116 Southern California students enrolled at Harvard as freshmen for the fall term. A list of the matriculated students from our region may be found on page 4.

A record 2,606 applicants applied to Harvard College from Southern California for the Class of 2016. 148 local students were admitted to Harvard College. For the first time in recent memory, according to Marsha Hirano-Nakanishi, the Club's Vice Chair for Schools, our region's admit rate of 5.6% approximated the national admit rate.

Harvard College continues to attract and admit a diverse mix of students from our region. Entering Harvard freshmen from Southern California graduated from high schools with a tradition of sending high school students (Harvard-Westlake, Polytechnic, Brentwood, Palos Verdes, Santa Monica, etc.), but students also appeared from schools that may not have sent many students to Harvard College recently, including Arcadia, Franklin, Burbank, Birmingham, California Academy of Math and Science, Eagle Rock, Magnolia, and Manual Arts, according to Hirano-Nakanishi.

The high interest in Harvard College from Southland students means that the Club needs to recruit large numbers of local alumni interviewers. "Harvard is anticipating another record year for applications this year, and we expect Southern California to exceed last year's record level of interview requests," said Dan Medina, the Club's Vice President for Schools. "Admissions views the alumni interview as a critical component of a candidate's application, making it crucial for our area to have sufficient numbers of interviewers to meet the demands of the applicant pool," he said.

Alumni interested in serving as interviewers of candidates for admission to Harvard College should contact Dan Medina, the Club's Vice President for Schools, at dan@capknowledge.com. Both undergraduate and graduate alumni of Harvard University are welcome to serve as interviewers.

Harvard (Virtual) Tennis Club Recap and Next Event

Harvard (Virtual) Tennis Club Makes Debut! Under clear skies and at the historic Los Angeles Tennis Club, Eleven Harvard alumni tennis players(non-professionals) convened for a round robin tournament. Based on their winning margins the following ladder was established: 1. Ken Zunder, 2 Melanie Goldfarb, 3.Bill Glass, 4. Bill Comanor, 5. John Wang, 6. George Wolkon, 7. Al Chang, and 8. JJ Kang. Thanks to LA Tennis Club member Bill Comanor for inviting us to this famous tennis club, the site of premier tournaments in the past.

On Sunday, September 16, 2012, the Club has been invited to play at the Pacific Palisades Tennis Center by the Pacific Palisades Tennis Club. We need at least 5 mixed doubles teams. Please sign up, we will find a partner for you. Space is limited, first come, first served.
